

Bronze powder

Toxicological Data on the Unburnt Ingredient

Bronze powder is a mixture of the ingredients pigment metal 2 and zinc; see the toxicity of pigment metal 2 and zinc for an overview of the possible toxicity of bronze powder.

Bronze powder is approved by the US Food & Drug Administration for use in drugs (21CFR 73.1646), and cosmetics (21CFR 73.2646) [US FDA Code of Federal Regulations].

References

US FDA Code of Federal Regulations. See
<http://www.accessdata.fda.gov/scripts/cdrh/cfdocs/cfcfr/cfrsearch.cfm>